General Information

CLASS LIMITS

Some courses can only take a limited number of people. Your place in these courses will ONLY be held by pre-registration and payment of the fee. If you are registering by mail, confirm availability of space in courses with class limits BEFORE mailing in registration fee. A "no refund" policy applies to these courses.

FEES

You are encouraged to pre-pay for the course you wish to take. Staff will be available to collect fees at the first class. Courses with "class limits" must be pre-paid to ensure your place. All course fees must be paid no later than the second class. Students are required to present registration receipt to the instructor by this time.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Registration fees are free-of-charge for all courses except vocational where class minimums have been met. Material costs, where applicable, still apply.

INCOME TAX

Receipts totalling over $100.00 are income tax deductible effective 1982, so keep your fee receipts.

REFUNDS

A Complete Refund Is Made Only When a Course Is Cancelled.

A percentage refund is made when students must withdraw from a course as follows:

Withdrawal up to 2 weeks after class begins	80%
Withdrawal 2 - 4 weeks after start	50%
Withdrawal after 4 weeks	No Refund

No refund on textbooks

A NO REFUND POLICY IS IMPOSED ON CLASS LIMIT COURSES. The College reserves the right to change fees without notice, to limit registrations in any program or to cancel or revise any of the courses listed.

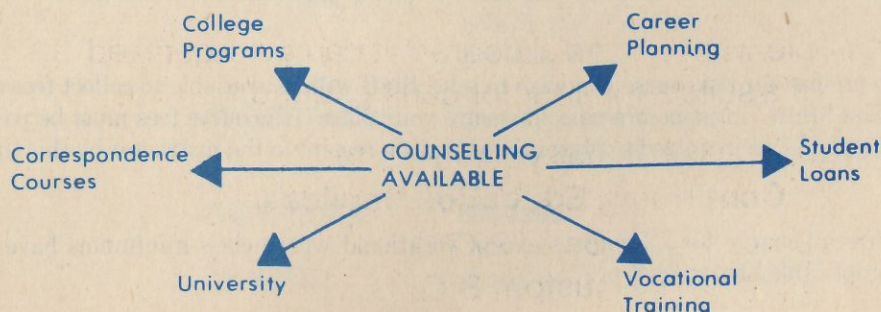

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTRE

Library and resource materials are catalogued at the Houston College Centre. The Learning Resource Centre is open to students and instructors of Northwest Community College. Reference materials may be used at the Centre. Microfiche listings of the Learning Resource Centres in other B.C. post-secondary institutions are also available, as well as books and periodicals. These can be ordered.

YOU'RE INVITED TO A SPECIAL OPEN HOUSE
AT THE COLLEGE CENTRE
SATURDAY, JAN. 9, 10:00 A.M. TO 3:00 P.M.

COUNSELLING

College counsellor Bert Seinen will be available in Houston once each month to discuss and advise on the following matters:

PHONE: 845-7266 to make an appointment.

STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Any student or potential student who feels he/she may need assistance for any disability is encouraged to contact the Co-ordinator at the College Centre. If you would like to discuss program ideas, contact the Adult Special Education Co-ordinator, Bob Phillips, by telephoning 635-6511 (Terrace), or write Northwest Community College at Box 726, Terrace, B.C. V8G 4C2.

TERRACE CAMPUS COURSES

The main campus of Northwest Community College in Terrace offers a full complement of pre-apprentice, apprentice and vocational programs, as well as adult basic education and academic courses. Contact your local College Centre for more information.

HIGH SCHOOL CORRESPONDENCE COURSES

Sponsored by the Ministry of Education, courses in Grades One to Twelve and some vocational courses. Students pace their own work, but should schedule regular studying time. Cost: $25.00 per academic course. Useful for adults who cannot attend school regularly and who require specific courses to complete their high school education.

OPEN LEARNING INSTITUTE

Study at home with the Open Learning Institute! Now you can get your high school diploma, study toward a university degree, or start on a whole new career. Call collect to your nearest OLI advisor for details — in Terrace at 635-4961. Or get in touch with the College Centre.

BABYSITTING

MORE ABOUT THE ARTISTS.....

Photographer Jim Breukelman of West Vancouver was born in Trinidad. He received his BFA in photography and design from the Rhode Island School of Design, and he has also studied industrial design. He has been teaching at the Vancouver School of Art (ECCA) since 1967 in both the photography course and first year Foundation programs. In 1977 he ran a photography course at the Banff Centre of Fine Arts. From 1966 to 1973 he ran his own photographic and design studio in Vancouver.

His work has been recognized in major publications and exhibitions. His "Distance" series, exhibited in a solo show at the Helen Pitt Gallery, was published in Camera International in October 1977. In 1978 he had a solo show of photo-sculpture at the Nova Gallery, Vancouver; he was represented in the Canadian Portrait Show at the Edmonton Art Gallery, and included in "Colour Cast" (the work of six photographers including three from ECCA) which toured B.C., Alberta and Manitoba. He has conducted photography workshops for the Outreach Program.

James Thornsbury has been splitting his time between his studio at Hornby Island, British Columbia, where he now lives and the University of Saskatchewan where he taught from 1970 to 1979. He has a BA in art education from Western Washington State College and an MA in pottery from Central Washington State College. Recent exhibitions in British Columbia have included a touring group show "Major Saskatchewan Artists" at the Art Gallery of Greater Vancouver, "Two from Hornby Island" at the Malaspina Art Gallery, and "James Thornsbury - Realism and Fantasy" at the Pottery Gallery in Vancouver. Among his awards was the "Best Avant Garde Award" at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, 1975. He has taught Summer School courses in ceramics at the Emily Carr School of Art; his work has been shown across North America and is represented in the permanent collections of the National Museum of Modern Art in Kyoto, Japan.
