Dear Prospective Student:

Northwest Community College provides a great variety of educational programs to serve the people of the Northwest. Since 1975 many opportunities for further education have been brought to the communities of the College Region.

The next few pages outline the full-time programs offered in Terrace. There are seven pre-employment and three pre-apprenticeship programs leading to direct employment. We offer full-time and part-time academic programs for general interest or for university transfer credit towards your first degree. There is a full-time career program in Early Childhood Education and a Community Service Worker program is being developed. The unique Aboriginal Studies program provides university transfer courses specifically designed to meet the needs of the Native population of the area.

Northwest Community College is here to serve you. We sincerely hope that you will wish to be a part of it.

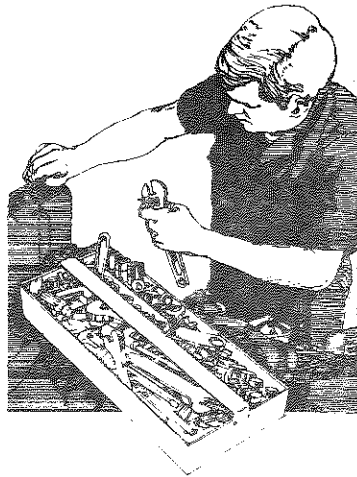

Sincerely,

D. V. George,
