COMMUNITY EDUCATION PROGRAM

FALL, 1977

Coordinator: Laurie Jones
Telephone 624-6054

Community Education Services (CES) is a joint School District and College program designed to deliver a wide variety of continuing education courses in the Prince Rupert area, including academic, university transfer, vocational, general interest, and community education.

Except for certain weekend workshops, most courses are held in the evenings, Monday through Thursday, at various locations -

AMANTE:	Northwest Community College 820 - 3rd Avenue West
PRSS:	Prince Rupert Senior Secondary 417 - 9th Avenue West
ROOSEVELT:	Roosevelt Park Elementary Summit Avenue

Tuition Fees: Fees are set according to the extent and type of course. Some courses may require student purchase of material and/or textbooks. Fees must be paid IN FULL at registration.

Cancellations: Courses may be cancelled if there is not sufficient enrolment. Refunds WILL NOT be given unless a course is cancelled.

General: Unless otherwise listed, classes for the fall semester commence the week of September 12 for academic courses, and the week of September 19 for most other courses. Starting dates are included in each course description.

UNIVERSITY TRANSFER PROGRAM

Academic Head: Mr. Norm Webster
Terrace, telephone 635-6511

Admission: The Northwest Community College has an 'open door' admissions policy - students do not have to be high school graduates to enter college academic courses. The courses are designed for adults who wish to further their intellectual interests and who may have left the formal schooling system some time ago, as well as for recent high school graduates. Students do not have to have future academic pursuits in mind to enrol in this program.

Registration: Registration will be held at the college campus, Amante Building, 820 - 3rd Avenue West, on Tuesday, September 6, 1977, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. College personnel and instructors will be on hand to meet with and assist students.

Tuition Fees: $25.50 per course per semester. Courses normally require two (2) semesters: Sept. - Jan and Jan. - April. Senior Citizens, 60 years of age and over, are not charged tuition fees.

Refunds: A refund of fees is made only when a course is cancelled.

General: Classes for the fall semester commence the week of September 12 and all academic classes meet in the evenings from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Students enrolled in College academic courses have access to the college library in Terrace as well as to the Information Bank and the province-wide inter library loan system. Please refer to the college's calendar for more details of programs and regulations.

PROGRAMS IN ABORIGINAL STUDIES

Coordinator: Jeff Marvin
Counsellors: Sonja Andersen
Ian Crawford

Professional Studies

This is a uniquely designed program of university-transfer courses developed especially for Native workers involved in jobs servicing their people. Through a carefully-selected list of resource material and speakers, students take a look at human behaviour, government structures, land, law, racial and sex stereotyping and political systems. This two year program is based in Terrace, and students attend classes one full week every month.

Workshops

Some aspects of the above program can be incorporated into local issues and run in a workshop or seminar format wherever and whenever people may want them. Films and guest speakers concerning just about any issue involving Native people can be brought in.

INFORMATION BANK

Coordinator: Maureen Cassidy
Telephone 842-5587 (Hazelton)

Audio-tapes, old photos, maps and microfilmed newspapers, journals and government reports are all included in this central clearing house for historical material on the northwest.

Open to the public, but material is not permitted to leave College offices because of its rarity, age, or just the sheer expense of replacement.

FILM SERIES

Starting in January, 1978, the College is offering a series of eight films, shown every other Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. For nostalgia lovers, art enthusiasts, and just plain movie-goers, this is a relaxing and entertaining way to spend a Sunday evening with the family, a friend, or by yourself.

Adults pay $2.00; college, university and high school students pay $1.50, and under eleven years' get in for .75¢. Film titles and descriptions will be announced in January.

HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION

School District #52 presently offers two methods of attaining secondary school credits towards graduation for adults. Prospective students should make appointments with the CES coordinator for additional information and program counselling.

ADULT SECONDARY SCHOOL PROGRAM

To be eligible for this program, one must be 19 or older, or 18 and out of school for at least one year. In order to graduate, students must complete English 12, Social Studies 11, and five other credit courses from the Senior Secondary program curriculum, three of which must be numbered '12.'

Course may be completed by enrolling in (1) the ministry of education's Correspondence program or by (2) attending day classes at the Prince Rupert Senior Secondary School.

GENERAL EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT TESTS - Grade 12 equivalency

This is a series of five comprehensive examinations in English Composition, Social Studies, Natural Sciences, Literature, and Mathematics, which are designed to measure as precisely as possible the students' major generalizations, ideas, and intellectual skills normally gained through secondary-school attendance.

GED certification provides an opportunity to earn an official statement of grade 12 equivalency standing which may assist in qualifying for better jobs, promotions, and admission to post-secondary educational institutions. To write these tests, you must meet the following requirements:

- 1) be at least 19 years of age;
- 2) be out of school at least one academic year;
- 3) be a resident of B. C. for at least six months, and
- 4) pay a $5.00 administrative charge.

Next sittings in Prince Rupert are scheduled for October 14th and 15th. Applications forms may be picked up at the CES offices and must be completed and returned by September 16th.
