HOW TO GET THE COURSE YOU WANT

Northwest Community College works with many organizations, assisting them, developing courses and workshops, and providing varied educational services.

If your organization or you personally have any suggestions for a course not listed, do not hesitate to call. A course can be offered in almost any subject, providing there is a competent instructor, the necessary equipment, and sufficient interest.

COMPLAINTS AND PROBLEMS

If you have any complaints or problems, please call 842-5291 or stop by and discuss them with us.

STAFF

Frank Cassidy is the Upper Skeena Co-ordinator, Sandy Layher is the clerk and Barb Phillips is the Assistant Co-ordinator for Kitwanga.

THE LEARNING EXCHANGE

Do you have knowledge or a skill you would like to share with someone on an individual or group basis? Is there knowledge or a skill you would like to obtain? If so, call (842-5291) or stop by the College and sign up on The Learning Exchange. Maybe there is someone in the community who will share their time with you.

FEEES

Fees vary according to the length and type of course. Generally, but not always, they are $1/hr. for evening classes. Fees are payable at registration, preferably, or before the second class at the latest. They can also be paid at the Northwest College Centre in Hazelton.

All courses are free to senior citizens. Bands will pay the fees for many courses for status Indians who show need upon application.

Retain your fee receipt for your Income Tax return. Receipts totaling over $25.00 are deductible. All fees include a $1.00 student accident insurance charge.

REFUNDS

Refunds will not be given after the second class. Refunds will be given for all cancelled courses.

REGISTRATION

You are not formally registered for a course until the fee has been fully paid. If registration in a course is limited to a set number of people (e.g. ten, fifteen), you must pay your fee and not just sign up to guarantee that you have a place. The last opportunity to register and pay fees for a course will be before the second session. No one who has not registered and paid the course fee by this time will be allowed to continue in a course. Late entry into courses will be allowable upon the permission of the instructor, but fees must be paid at the first session the late entering student attends.

GITKSAN LANGUAGE

Covers the fundamentals of oral and written Gitksan for beginners and the more advanced, including basic sounds, vocabulary, grammar, etc. Also presents an opportunity to learn more about the traditions and customs of the Gitksan as they are reflected in the language and its uses.

INTERNATIONAL FILM APPRECIATION SERIES

This winter the College will be presenting a different kind of film series. The films will be entertaining (as always!), but they will be more educationally oriented than in the past. Among the films selected, there are Canadian, East Indian, American, and Swedish movies. The first show date has not been set, but it should be in mid to late January. Films will be co-sponsored with the Kispiox Valley Community Association and shown at the Community Hall on Saturday's at 7:30. Admission will be $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children.

Here is a list of films to come:

THE MAGIC FLUTE - This Ingmar Berman introduction to opera is a favorite of adults and children alike (with sub titles).

BETWEEN FRIENDS - a critically acclaimed Canadian movie.

BLACK PIRATE - starring Douglas Fairbanks, this silent classic was the one of the first and most exciting of the swashbucklers.

GIRLFRIEND - a surprise winner of the Cannes Film festival in 1978.

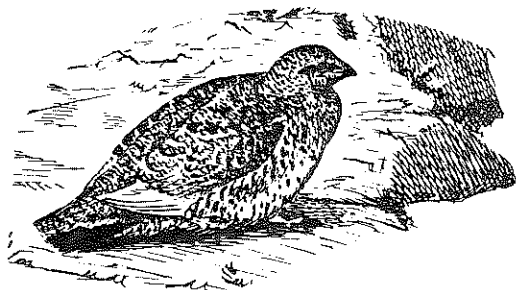

CHESSPLAYERS - directed by India's most famous movie-maker, Satyajit Ray.

PERSONA - Ingmar Berman's masterpiece and Liv Ullman's first film.

B.C. SERIES - a selection of recent B.C. films.

ACCESS COUNSELLOR

There is now a full time counsellor for the Northwest Community College in Hazelton. Kathy Clay is available to assist persons and groups in defining and working on their educational, personal and social goals. Please stop by or call 842-5291 the College Centre for more information or to make an appointment with Kathy.

THE INFORMATION BANK

This Northwest College archival resource contains photos, maps, books, government reports, journals, pamphlets, taped interviews of "old timers" and microfilms of newspapers concerning the history and people of the northwestern B.C.

There is a full index at the College centre in Hazelton and most materials can be made available, upon order, at the College centre. Please ask us for more information. Many people and organizations have already used these resources and found it to be very worthwhile.

ACADEMIC

Each of the following courses may be taken for university transfer credit (transferable to any university in B.C.) or for general interest. General interest students are not required to do assignments, take tests, etc. All courses cost $26.50

CONSERVATION AND MANAGEMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Beginning with a short introduction to the science of ecology and the natural history of man, this course will concentrate on the resources which support us, with special emphasis on the natural resources of northern British Columbia. The various governmental agencies which administer resources, resource issues in northern B.C. and the role of the citizen in resource decision-making will also be explored.
